

NuMetal Fill 2:

Legende

A legend for the drum notation in 4/4 time. It shows a two-staff system. The top staff has a treble clef and a 4/4 time signature. The bottom staff has a bass clef. The notation includes: a quarter note on the top staff labeled '=Snare', a quarter note on the bottom staff labeled '=Bass', a quarter note on the top staff labeled '=Tom1', a quarter note on the top staff labeled '=Tom2', a quarter note on the top staff labeled '=Tom3', a quarter note on the top staff labeled '=Tom4', a quarter note on the top staff with an 'x' above it labeled 'x=HiHat', and a quarter note on the bottom staff with an 'x' above it labeled 'x=HiHat Step'.

The main drum notation for the fill, written on a two-staff system (treble and bass clefs) in 4/4 time. The piece starts with a double bar line. The notation consists of several measures of music. The first two measures feature a snare drum pattern (quarter notes on the top staff) with accents (>) and are followed by hi-hat steps (x) on the top staff. The subsequent measures feature a bass drum pattern (quarter notes on the bottom staff) with accents (>). The final measure features a snare drum pattern (quarter notes on the top staff) with accents (>) and is followed by hi-hat steps (x) on the top staff. The piece ends with a double bar line.
